

2018 BELL AWARDS

WLKY-TV's Spirit of Louisville Foundation

AWARD OBJECTIVE

Every day people in our community are making valuable donations to charitable organizations, community activities, schools, and faith-based organizations with the precious gift of time, energy and special talents. With today's tight economic conditions, the need for volunteers is even greater. For the 41st year, the WLKY Spirit of Louisville Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization formed in 1978, is seeking to call attention to these outstanding volunteers who have taken the time to care.

NOMINEE QUALIFICATIONS

Any volunteer living in the Kentuckiana area is eligible for a Bell Award. Only one person may be nominated on a form. Nominations for couples, groups or organizations are not eligible.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Each year, awards are given in the following categories:

- Adult Bell Award Recipient (10 individuals are selected each year)
- Youth Service Honor (2 junior or senior high school students are selected each year)

JUDGING CRITERIA

The WLKY-TV Spirit of Louisville Foundation Board of Trustees will select the Bell Award and Youth Service Honor recipients based on the information provided in this nomination form. The judges consider:

- The average number of hours volunteered
- The diversity of the nominee's volunteer activities
- What defines this nominee as an "outstanding" volunteer

Application Deadline: June 30, 2018
