

AVAILABLE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 13, 2019

Brandon Madden, City Administrator
(864) 289-8890 | bmadden@mauldincitysc.com

Statement on Disciplinary Actions Involving the City Police Department

The City has received inquiries from members of the news media regarding the recent disciplinary actions taken that involved members of the City Police Department. Based on City protocols, the City is limited in the details it can share as it relates to any personnel matter.

The actions taken by the members of the City Police Department did not involve the delivery of public services or interactions with the public. However, the disciplinary actions were necessary because of violations of the City's personnel code.

The City will hold employees accountable for their actions and has a standard of integrity that it expects all employees to adhere to, and while disciplinary actions were taken, they were done so in accordance with the appropriate City policies.

The City is committed to providing high quality public services to its residents, and will continue to serve the residents of our community in a manner that is reflective of our standards, values, and expectations.

ABOUT THE CITY OF MAULDIN

The City of Mauldin is located in the Upstate of South Carolina and in the heart of Greenville County. It is the 17th largest city in South Carolina out of 270 municipalities and one of the fastest growing cities in the state. Mauldin was first chartered in 1820 and has grown to a population of more than 25,000. More information about the City of Mauldin can be found online at cityofmauldin.org.

####

