CONCORD – Today, 100 women from across New Hampshire have endorsed Lynne Blankenbeker for Congress in the 2nd District. The outstanding group of business leaders, elected officials, and party activists who makeup Lynne’s Women’s Coalition are lead by State Senator Regina Birdsell.

Lynne has also been endorsed by VIEW PAC and Maggie’s List, the two preeminent groups working to elect conservative women to federal public office.

“Ever since Lynne and I served in the NH House together, she has been a leading voice, supporter, and defender of Republican women and the issues we hold dear. Her time in the military has proven she has the courage and strength to take on tough issues and unlike Rep. Kuster, will never run and hide from the challenges we face.”

New Hampshire State Senator

"As a member of the Women for Trump national advisory board, Lynne traveled across the country recruiting and activating Republican women. I know that she will be an empowering voice for all when she beats Rep. Kuster and is elected as our next Congresswomen."
