On 09/05/2023, I, Officer Duce along with Officer McNeilly were dispatched to meet the Harbormaster and the Coast Guard, for the report of a female party, on board a Yacht, who did not want to be there, was under the influence of narcotics, and possibly has overdosed. The reporting party stated the female was on the Jess Con, an 80ft boat that is currently anchored in Nantucket Harbor. Officers, along with the Coast Guard made contact with the above-mentioned boat. We then proceeded on the boat and was met by the owner, Scott Burke. Burke was advised of why we were there and led us into his bedroom. In the bedroom, we located a female party, who appeared to be under the influence of an unknown substance, she also stated that she did not feel safe. Nantucket Fire Department arrived on scene a short time later, to render medical aid. Inside the bedroom, in plain view, I observed a black semi-automatic handgun to be located on a bookshelf, that was on the right side of the bedroom. On the bedstand, located to the right of the bed, I observed a pink plastic baggie, containing a white powdery substance. Through my training and experience, I identified this powdery substance to be consistent with cocaine, a class B drug. Upon further investigation, while deeming the firearm safe, it was observed that the firearm was loaded, with one round of 9MM ammunition in the chamber and with 9MM ammunition in the magazine. At this time, Burke was read his Miranda rights, at which time, he confirmed that he was the owner of the boat, the bedroom they were located in, was his and that the firearms on the boat were his. Burke stated that he had a License to carry firearms. Further investigation revealed that Burke had a license to carry only out of the state of Florida and it had expired in 09/2022. Burke stated that there was another firearm on the boat that was located on the top shelf of the bookshelf. The second firearm can be described as a short barrel rifle, that was in a safe condition. Due to the above facts and circumstances, Scott Burke, was placed under arrest
