

CAMOUFLAGE KIDS

Camouflage KIDS

Who are they?

These are the beautiful little people behind the scenes. They are children of United States Armed Forces Veterans and active Service members. They are our future, children who should know they are not forgotten.

Why do I call them Camouflage Kids?

Their parents are the brave people that proudly put on the camouflage uniform. Each day they go about their daily mission to protect and serve.

ARMY RESERVES

Who am I?

My name is Tamara Allen, I am a veteran of the United States Armed Forces. I served in the Army for 15 years. I am fortunate today to have my son a purple heart veteran here with me today, who was wounded in Afghanistan. I have a camouflage kid who is 12 and two camouflage grandkids. When I look at how happy they are, I always think about other kids. I am only one person but I believe I can make a difference. Because I care!

What's my mission?

From Veteran to Veteran or Veteran to Service member, my goal is to create an extra smile by given 100 Camouflage Kids. Gifts, visit with Santa, Christmas photos will be taken with parental consent and there will be snacks and fun for families who need assistance. Event will be held at Veterans Manor 3430 W. Wisconsin Ave, in Milwaukee, on December 17, 2016 at 11-1:30. Reservation should be made with me. Please provide child's name, age and verify if child is boy or girl receiving gift. There is only 100 slots. Deadline to respond by is
