

Closing-

The defendants first second in court and the new attorney says-"do not smile"--WHAT---it is a beautiful day and all are alive and a beautiful girl in a black dress and smiles and joy are not allowed-how bizarre. A case that revolves wholly on what is inside ones heart and how much love and care they possess for their fellowman and one is suggested not to smile---it is an impossible demand-unrealistic at best. It is natural, it should be natural, we must demand it be natural--what more is there in life if we are not permitted to smile; we erase all purpose, all reason for living , all happiness from life. How would a jury get to know a defendant at his very core if he is not permitted to smile or laugh or talk or show any emotion. How is a jury to judge a man, without knowing everything--every intimate detail of his being, of his life, of his work, every ounce of his character and what he stands for, it is imperative is it not. For one to decide if a human should have the privilege of walking down the sidewalk enjoying the sun on his face among the whole of society with extreme respect for everyones human rights it seemingly requires to know ones whole personality, inside and out and to see that smile and hear that laugh and the whole. Hopefully through the course of this trial you have gotten to know this defendant, what does lie in his heart and his soul and how he thinks and would act and that he is extremely far/far from dangerous. The defendants sole purpose in representing himself was so that he could share exactly who he was down to the smallest detail with nothing held back, so that you the jury would have every scrap of information in your quest to satisfy Rule 102 of ascertaining the Truth. But as you know by now this verdict means absolutely nothing--it is meaningless; unimportant--as what is just one man he is nothing; a grain of sand, a drop in the ocean. What might be important is the smallest fragment of what can be taken away--a decent human thought, maybe a greater respect for our fellowman, maybe a smidge more of sympathy and patience as we ponder that question again of why we all LIVE---Why are we here. We started this conversation before, 1.52 million years ago/ago as two human=an/human species crossed paths in the mud and none/One must update their thoughts in sadness as one of those species became extinct. One must weep in sadness realizing that perhaps innate love and caring is not inborn as homoerectus callously allowed his counterpart to suffer and die and become extinct--how heartless. Perhaps mankind has not come so far; still the same, befuddled by simple caring. But what more is there? Nothing. That is all that matters. What more could one want? Just the beauty of simple caring. Just basic kindness is all that humanity ask. Why is that so hard? Just to help each other/other. Just to work together towards mutual success- it is easy. To respect one another/another. To hold each other- other. To love one another-simple. It is not so difficult. We are all exactly the same all over the globe--exactly the same homoerectus to HomoSapiens- we are the same. We have the same hearts; We have the same minds; The same thoughts: The same hopes and dreams. Everyone just wants happiness and peace--nothing more. How do we get so far off track? What is wrong with humans -- to have so much hatred and be so cruel and inhumane to slaughter on another. The defendant received a generous lot of some 50 books, but most all have history within sharing all of the horrors that have occurred to humans. All of the books get started but the tears begin to flow when it reaches the stragedy of slaughter and abuse of human life, and teh book must be tossed aside as teh pain is too much. How could humans have allowed such suffering, starvation and murder-- what is wrong with us. Kings starving their populations to death, potato famines, conquerors murdering everyone for land, humans stqacked for one bullet effeciency, slavery, and rape and all manner of autrocities. How can one stomach the pain and tears, and yet nothing was learned. How does one even digest world warws/wars. How did Americans sit are the largest military for years on end as/as 80 million were slaughtered- how is that possible- has no one a heart. And what was it for- racist power and control over others- insanity. Humanity and civilization set back 50 years outte of ignorance and yet perhaps h= landed on the same path again; learning nothing. Why is hatred voted for and choosen? Where is the moral fabric of our great American Constituion and Bill of Rights. Where/where is the basic human decency? Just like World War 2 everyone sits again silent as a hundred or more are killed daily in Ukrqaine and Sudsan Gaza; doing nothing to stop it. Mamoud Khalil after being unjustly detained for months just for exercising his first amendment rights was asked if he would protest anymore, and he said, -" I must, people are still dying." Must a foreigner teach Americans of compassion, sympathy and caring? Why is thhre/there so much Apathy? How can this silly little court case over one stupid mans life be of any value or worth when hundreds die daily in Ukraine, Sudan and Gaza-- it is ludicrous. Off wqith/with the head and on to the next, sending the money saved to Gaza. 15,000 children dead, 17,000 orphaned, 4000

4000 amputees and America supports and fosters this genocide, and no one mutters a word in fear of this barbaric administration. Russia invades Ukraine and we all scream for a few seconds--the Jews invade Palestine and everyone cheers and sends guns and weapons and rockets to level an entire society--WHY? Again that /that useless American life and that chair on a beautiful Hawaiian beach perfectly suited for a Palestinian. If one wants to evacuate all off Gaza, what is wrong with all here in America-perfect. Oh, but we must remember- a Jew is worth 50 Palestinians, but I doubt the defendant is equivalent to a Jew, otherwise 50 beach chairs/chairs will be needed. Is there a need to rehash the circumstances again that resulted in all the killing? Strangely someone cancelled a Joint Cooperative Partnership with Iran that influences the whole region--wow--kick the beehive. Someone decided to move the US embassy in Palestine to kick the beehive more. Then someone illegally annexed more Palestinian West Bank land/land-stomping on the beehive. That same person then tries to push and accord forcing Arabs to decide to be for their fellow Arabs or against their fellowman- odd- and no one expected it to explode- the world is not dumb. Yet still an idiot mutters--" IT wasn't on my watch" --oh but it is all your/your planning and Intent- realized. How can one be so stupid, careless and callous when lives are at stake/stake. Even if his racism places no value on Palestinian lives , 1,400 valuable Jewish lives he added/ended. And now with our direct attacks on Iran, America itself is once again a target and we will be attacked again and again for decades and we shan't wonder why/why. It will be 9/11 over and over and over. The world is so fragile, why would we want to fight with anyone;

why must we be at odds with the whole world. Who will count the tragedies and death this administration causes/causes. What will the American Children and grandchildren think/think of what has been done-selfishness and greed wrecking lives with untold human suffering. Again this case and one life is silliness against millions of lives destroyed and all hope erased for our fellowman around the globe. HOPE was our greatest export and now tariffs and cruelty and racism has removed hope for every child and parent/parent on the planet- How did America allow this. As this case and every human is measured on INTENT--how does one judge 7 phone calls to Putin just prior to a war and an election. It would seem the Intent was to trade 1.5 million lives and a war of great destruction for a political soundbite for re-election-horrific. Trump thinking that if I turned the war on, then I can turn it off- not so easy. How could the American population vote against democracy, and give ours away to tyranny, abandon Ukraine and Taiwan and every other struggling democracy on our great planet. Trump did nothing for Afghanistan nor Syria pulling our support and his racism prevents needed support in Sudan where 150,000 are murdered and countless rape as well as Haiti, Congo, CAR, Myanmar, Venezuela, Georgia, Moldova, Nicaragua and all of the countless struggling democracies that look to US support. Our president will fly to the Mideast to fill his pockets with gold but not stop in Gaza or Turkey to see about peace and hunger and we are forced now to weight that intent against the Intent of our defendant. The president has stated it was stupid to give Gaza to the Palestinians in the first place, their own land, should not be their own, better to evict/evict and make and make homeless so a resort for profit can be built- what Intent is that. While our defendant would have the Intent to trade out the hostages with new fresh selfless souls down in the dirt and tunnels, so they old Jewish hostages can go home and the war could stop. While not a single country has publicly sent one soldier to fight in Ukraine it is not suprising that not one single country has sent a soldier to defend the palestinians and have troops with weapons against the Israelis forcing food trucks in to Gaza. Not one country has the backbone to do what is right nor any Americans. Greta Thunberg, Jose Andres and Doctors without Borders is all the world can render. America is no longer the land of the Brave, we have lost our Mettle, our persistence, our/our perseverance, all courage gone. What happened to the moral fortitude that ran through our veins in the Revolutionary war and the fight to end slavery. Where are those men and women as our world unravels- we need them now. Why was the defendant not standing on the border of Ukraine to face off with the amazing Russian tanks just as the chinese man did in Tianemans Square where 3,300 brave freedom fighters were lost- and where were we for them also. Back to the first question of " Why do we live?" -if not to protect our fellowman; why was/was not the whole of the American population and US military and the world there/there on the Ukraine border on day one facing off against the Russian troops. What happened to the fortitude like that of the Balkan states and their human chain in 1990 blocking off Russian aggression. What has happened to the fearless people that always stood unwavering for what/what was right - against wrong- where have they gone; those unafraid of death. Where are the Patrick Henrys of the world screaming-" as for me, give me liberty or death".

 Are the Ukrainians the only ones that value freedom and have a regard for humanity any more. Where was everyone, including the defendant when the 3,300 were slaughtered in Tianemens Sqaure- the American, the Brits, The French, the Japanese, anyone to stand with the brave Chinese protesters for human rights---No one showed up--no one arrived and hope and human rights was scooped up and buried in a mass grave without thought or care. We all failed that day as human beings and now the autrocities continue, more groups murdered, babies abandoned, citizens killed for organs, and wives with steel collars chained to a garage wall. And we slept again as Hong Kong fell.
 Where have our real leaders gone, that stand for something, someting like our fellowman. When will wehavve the balls to stand and defend mankind and humanity from pain and injustice. My chinese frineds/friends write me of their detention and torture and I^{one} so useless cannot even get one out of the Moldova airport. Luckily ojnly/only 100 were murdered in Ukraines Independence Square and not 3300 when they stood for freedom; fourteen years ago, that heroic thirt=st/sthirst fore democracy spawning the current war. And Again -" why do we live" as 190 countries have not sent ONE soldier to fight--what a pathetic bunch of heartless humans, as it is pointless ofr/for anyone to exist, 7 billion, if there isnothing, nothing in our souls, no morals; why continue if basic human rights has no vlue value.
 Nato just posed for a grand boastful group photo whith chest out in fake defiance, when none has rendered a soldier or substantial military equipment--Laughable--instead saying --we will send troops after a ceaasefire--funny --cowards and pussies of the highest degree.

They stupidly worry of Natos future--why, it is a perfectly useless group, disband it; It stands for nothing; if the call to action is not now- then when is it. A nuclear weapon and all run and hide. If the entire world does not stand for what is right adn wrong-- then this court and case is of certain unimportance; as human life and democracy have no value in this world. This--THIS is just a comedy--just entertainment--the world values nothing--Ukrainian lives, Palestinian lives, Sudanese lives--human lives mean nothing, an one wishes to pretend that one American life has some worth and value--IT DOES NOT-far less in fact. The defendant went to Ukraine at the onset to fight and dies for his fellowman and freedom and democracy, but was rejected. So he went to the capital to support and guide adn help other foreigners and establish a flag memorial for those lost, and a falg/flag display of worldwide support, and a hñdred other projects, running daily. While the Nato photo is complete garbage, all of the photos of those that have died that now rest in the grass of Independence Square; those are extremely important and meaningful and makes one weep. A great many of teh/the defendants close friends and recruits are now just a photo and a falg in the grass. Like Floridian Cory Winstead, puts Nato to shame, at age 20 selling his e motorcycle and all of his possessions for a one-way ticket to Ukraine . In the photo he holds a big gun and the pride of his contribution to humanity is written all over his fave; knowing the sacrifice was worthy. He lands as the very best of all of America and all of humanity- GONE. Cory was short on clothes, so the defendant offered all, but naturally he humbly refused, inisisting on struuggling with what he had- sent off to dies.

Jed, KC, Elvis, Emil-to many to name, the very best of humanity from every country selflessly volunteering to stand up to aggression and an assault on basic human rights. How is it that the most wonderful humans among us sacrifice themselves for the greater good and what is right and honorable while the balance sits, lazy, on the couch watching TV, whining and moaning in utter uselessness.

No, NO, NO, this place is not the world this defendant had expected-one expects far more- far more from human caring--but NO,-nothing.

This court; this case, meaningless--the trial is out there--out there in the world, and what is every single human's INTENT, it always boils down to intent- who we are. The doctors ask why one goes to Ukraine, sure merely a clinical retort, but a grossly insulting angle to attack; from their luxury life. As so many wonderful men and women lost with only their photos remaining in the grass and their painful stories of loss in the pages of a book. The first flag and photo placed therein the grass of Galena's mother murdered by Russian soldiers, leaving an orphan behind. How much tragedy must be displayed and shared to render one tear, to perhaps motivate one to act. Does the world stand for anything? On the wall in the square where the defendant honored all foreign volunteers, the sign read -that this war was an indictment of every human, to respond, to act, to get involved, but it falls on deaf ears.

The world stands for nothing. Ukraine should be angry-they should be furious with the apathy and global neglect, as Europe and the world hoards its weapons for fear of some other far off imaginary threat; perhaps another planet invades. The childish debate of rearming idle countries or arming Ukraine-what silliness,

-there is no debate; every bit of everything goes to Ukraine, down to the last bullet--here take it. It requires no thought. Is there another enemy beyond Russia, China and North Korea--please do tell. What more inviting to the rumble than to hollow out one's own defenses and beg the aggressor to cross that line; stand vulnerable and tell the arrogant prick that thinks he can take whatever he wants--come--come fuck with me; I have nothing - I donated all--bring it, bring it, bring it. Where are those leaders. Perhaps democracy does not work as it only renders cowards, or those just bent on destroying democracy. Europe says it will send in troops when there is a ceasefire--how ridiculous and so useless; that is too late--you fools. Europe is hollow and now Americans have chosen to turn its back on democracy. What would our forefathers think--spineless--flapping in the wind. Must the Russian Ildar Dadin teach us of human decency and the value of freedom and democracy. He left a comfortable life in Russia to join the Ukraine military to fight and ultimately die for freedom and democracy, as he knew what the alternative entailed. He is a hero and champion of humanity, while this defendant before you is nothing. The America that everyone loved and cherished now gone, it is all meaningless, broken, crushed, handed over for a second time to be destroyed. Alexander Hamilton said on his death bed--"if you break this union, you will break my heart." I am sorry Hamilton, it is broken. All of the revolutionary war soldiers that died and starved as prisoners, bodies discarded in the river must be ashamed of us now; yes, defendant is useless. All are mere stewards of this great nation that was granted; the only duty to merely guide adjust and manage and honorable and dignified course, yet all failed at the simplest task. What happened to altruism, to selflessness, to the greater good, putting in more than is taken out; wehre/where has all of that gone ; replace with selfishness and greed. Americans swimming in chocolate yet still complain--muttered the humble Ukrainian, and he is correct. Whatever elected official offers the most handouts wins- it is so grotesque. Our nation traded for the price of eggs. Kennedy said it best-- " Ask NOT"--yet no one listens. All are grossly confused by the term " American Dream". A newspaper article survey rendered wider ranging thoughts. Most felt it meant they were owed a house with a white picket fence anda good job--that is not the American dream. The American dream is on ly one thing- OPPORTUNITY--nothing more. This nation owes nothing to anyone- just teh/the opportunity that freedom affords- that is the American dreamthat migrants seek- nothing more. If you cannot make it, it is your fault. It is Natural Selection-sink or swim-that is America. America should never guarantee free food, free healthcare, free retirement benefits, free education, free housing--free everything that is ludicrous. All of that is in direct opposition and counter to all that is America and the American dream--so ASK NOT... The moral fabric of American compassion to care for one another should be one on one, face to face, in our local communities adn not childishy begging of far off federal slush funds towards bankrupting ~~our~~ the nation--everyone should be ashamed. The American dream starts as selling pencils, lemonade, newspapers or books from a sidewalk or garage; or anything. Every single tiny
