INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE: [18 U.S.C. § 1349 – Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud and Wire Fraud]

The Grand Jury charges:

DANA WILLIAMSON,
defendant herein, as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to the Indictment:

A. The Conspirators

1. DANA WILLIAMSON was the founder and owner of Company A. WILLIAMSON, through Company A, provided public affairs, lobbying, and political consulting services to entities attempting to influence decision making in California government. In or about late 2022, WILLIAMSON left her private employment and accepted a position as the Chief of Staff to a California elected official. She held that position until in or about December 2024.

2. Co-Conspirator 2 was a former California public official, and the founder and owner of Company B. Through Company B, Co-Conspirator 2 provided consulting services to those seeking to influence legislation and decision making in California government.

3. Greg Campbell, charged by Information in case number 2:25-cr-0252-TLN, was a registered lobbyist and a founding member of Company C, a hub for public affairs, campaign, crisis management, communications and lobbying firms in California. Campbell also founded and owned Company D, a lobbying company that represented clients seeking to influence legislation and decision making in California government.

4. Sean McCluskie, charged by Information in case number 2:25-cr-0253-TLN, was a federal employee serving as the Chief of Staff to Public Official 1. As the Chief of Staff to Public Official 1, McCluskie had significant influence over federal decision making and contracts. In that position, he was also bound by federal ethics and disclosure rules regarding outside income and employment. McCluskie resided near both Sacramento, California and Washington, D.C., traveling back and forth between the two locations from 2022 through 2024.

5. Co-Conspirator 5 (“McCluskie’s spouse”) was a stay-at-home parent, who had prior work experience in the media industry.

B. The Dormant Campaign Funds

6. Public Official 1 was a federal public official but had previously held other federal and California state positions. McCluskie had worked for Public Official 1 for many years while Public Official 1 held a variety of public offices. Based on the prior relationship and McCluskie’s position as

1 Chief of Staff, McCluskie had a relationship and position of trust with respect to Public Official 1 and 2 Public Official 1's campaign organization.

3 7. Immediately prior to accepting his federal appointment, Public Official 1 served in a
4 California state elected office. As a state elected official, Public Official 1 maintained one or more bank
5 accounts containing campaign contributions that were designated for future electoral campaigns.

6 8. When Public Official 1 entered federal office, federal ethics rules prohibited Public
7 Official 1 from actively engaging in campaign-related activities. To comply with these rules, Public
8 Official 1 stopped campaign activity, allowing his state campaign account to become dormant. Public 9 Official 1 moved the existing state campaign funds to a new campaign account for a future campaign.
10 In these accounts (collectively, "the dormant campaign accounts" or the "campaign accounts"), the 11 funds were to be used for basic account maintenance and not for any active campaign-related activity.
12 Public Official 1 delegated to McCluskie responsibility for arranging for the funds in the dormant 13 campaign accounts to be monitored and overseen by a third party.

14 9. Law Firm 1 was a California-based law firm that specialized in providing legal advice
15 related to campaign finance laws and regulations and in managing campaign accounts. It was led by 16 Lawyer 1, an experienced legal practitioner, and employed a number of lawyers and non-lawyer
17 employees. Law Firm 1 oversaw the dormant campaign accounts for Public Official 1, issued payments, 18 and prepared campaign financial disclosures that were required under California state law.

19 10. Before Law Firm 1 would issue a payment from the dormant campaign accounts, Law 20 Firm 1 required authorization of the payment or recurring payments. Law Firm 1 would review the 21 payments and the payments' stated purpose to ensure compliance with rules and regulations regarding 22 expenditure of campaign funds. Law Firm 1, however, was not responsible for ensuring that the 23 services or goods billed were, in fact, provided. Nor was Law Firm 1 responsible for conducting 24 independent research into the purpose of the expenditures. Instead, McCluskie, or a person designated 25 by McCluskie, was responsible for authorizing payments and ensuring that the payments were for goods
26 and services that were provided as stated. Except for the payments that are the subject of the charges in 27 this Indictment, payments from the dormant campaign accounts were typically for small amounts for 28 expenses such as website maintenance and minor office expenditures.

11. When a payment was approved, or a previously-approved recurring payment invoiced, Law Firm 1 would authorize payment from the dormant campaign accounts. The dormant campaign account funds were held at Bank 1.

12. Bank 1, as well as Bank 2, Bank 3, Bank 4, Bank 5, and Credit Union 1, were financial institutions as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20.

II. THE CONSPIRACY AND ITS OBJECTS

13. From in or about February 2022, through in or about September 2024, in Sacramento, El Dorado, and Yolo Counties, within the State and Eastern District of California, and elsewhere, WILLIAMSON did knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with Co-Conspirator 2, Campbell, McCluskie, and Co-Conspirator 5, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury to commit offenses against the United States, with each offense constituting an object of the conspiracy, to wit:

a. To knowingly execute and attempt to execute, a scheme and artifice to obtain any of the moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, a financial institution, by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises, half-truths and the omission of material facts for which there was a duty to disclose, that is, Bank Fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344(2).

b. To knowingly devise, intend to devise, and participate in a material scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises, half-truths, and the omission of material facts for which there was a duty to disclose, and to cause interstate and foreign wire transmissions, that is Wire Fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343.

14. The purpose of the conspiracy and scheme to defraud was to steal money from Public Official 1's dormant campaign accounts for McCluskie's own benefit. The money taken from the dormant campaign accounts was covertly funneled through companies controlled by WILLIAMSON, Co-Conspirator 2, and Campbell to hide the money's origin and avoid detection. Then it was disguised as pay to McCluskie's spouse for a "no-show" job and transferred into an account controlled by

1 McCluskie.

2 III. MANNER AND MEANS

3 In furtherance of the conspiracy, the conspirators employed, among others, the following manner
4 and means:

5 A. Initial Agreement

6 15. In or about February 2022, WILLIAMSON, who was working in public affairs and 7 lobbying, and McCluskie, who was a federal employee, met and discussed McCluskie's desire to have 8 more money while continuing to work as Chief of Staff to Public Official 1.

9 16. McCluskie and WILLIAMSON agreed that WILLIAMSON would bill Public Official 10 1's dormant campaign account for purported consulting services for overseeing the account at a rate of 11 $7,500 per month. This money was intended to subsidize $10,000 payments that WILLIAMSON would 12 make each month to benefit McCluskie financially.

13 B. Conduit Payments

14 17. Beginning in or about April 2022, as agreed, WILLIAMSON paid $10,000 per month to 15 Company C, an entity which was consistently controlled by Campbell, with, at times, WILLIAMSON or 16 Co-Conspirator 2, over and above any payments she would otherwise make to Company C. Company
17 C, through a third-party payroll services provider, then paid $10,000 per month into a bank account
18 McCluskie controlled. These payments were disguised as income to McCluskie's spouse for work 19 supposedly done for WILLIAMSON. In fact, McCluskie's spouse did not do any work for 20 WILLIAMSON, Company A, or Company C, and McCluskie's spouse did not communicate with 21 WILLIAMSON once the paperwork was completed to initiate the payments.

22 18. In or about November and December 2022, as WILLIAMSON was preparing to reenter
23 state government service, WILLIAMSON arranged for Co-Conspirator 2 to join the conspiracy in order
24 to take over WILLIAMSON's role in concealing the payments to McCluskie. In early 2023, Co-
25 Conspirator 2 began billing the dormant campaign account for purported consulting services at a rate of 26 $10,000 per month, at WILLIAMSON's direction. Typically, once Co-Conspirator 2's company
27 (Company B) received the money, Co-Conspirator 2, or someone at Co-Conspirator 2's direction, would 28 deposit the money into an account at Bank 2. Co-Conspirator 2 would then pass the $10,000 payment through to Company C. In some instances, Co-Conspirator 2 would pass through the money before receiving it from the dormant campaign account. Company B's payments to Company C were generally disguised by inflating the amount of rent and overhead Company B paid Company C each month, increasing the purported rent payments from approximately $10,700 to $20,700. Company C, which was consistently controlled by Campbell, with, at times, WILLIAMSON or Co-Conspirator 2, would then pay $10,000 through a third-party payroll provider into an account McCluskie controlled at Credit Union 1. These payments continued to be disguised as pay for work supposedly performed by McCluskie's spouse for Co-Conspirator 2. McCluskie's spouse, however, did not do work for Co-Conspirator 2, Company B, Company C, or Campbell.

19. The flow of the money from the dormant campaign accounts to McCluskie is represented, in summary, graphically below:

C. False Statements and Omissions

20. As part of the conspiracy, and in furtherance of their scheme, the conspirators made and caused others to make materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises, half-truths, and the omission of material facts for which there was a duty to disclose because of WILLIAMSON and McCluskie's ongoing relationship of trust with Public Official 1, his dormant campaign and the campaign's law firm, Law Firm 1, to initiate and continue payments from the dormant campaign accounts.

21. The false statements and omissions included those made by McCluskie and WILLIAMSON to Public Official 1. For example, McCluskie had conversations with Public Official 1 to initially set up the payments and again when Co-Conspirator 2 replaced WILLIAMSON as the conduit. In those discussions, McCluskie informed Public Official 1 that $10,000 per month was a reasonable amount to pay for monitoring the dormant campaign accounts and that WILLIAMSON, and

1 later Co-Conspirator 2, were willing to take on the role. McCluskie also told Public Official 1 that 2 McCluskie's spouse had obtained employment working with Company A. McCluskie and 3 WILLIAMSON, however, intentionally misrepresented and concealed material facts from Public
4 Official 1, including falsely representing that the money from the dormant campaign accounts was 5 payment for consulting services to WILLIAMSON and, later, Co-Conspirator 2. McCluskie and 6 WILLIAMSON also omitted and concealed that the money was being passed through to McCluskie's
7 spouse, that his spouse was not doing any work, that his spouse was not working for any other clients of 8 her purported employers, and that the payments from the dormant campaign accounts were not for the 9 purpose of obtaining consulting services but were rather a means to personally enrich McCluskie.
10 McCluskie and WILLIAMSON made these misrepresentations and omissions because they believed,
11 correctly, that Public Official 1 would not have permitted the payments if Public Official 1 had known 12 the truth.

13 22. WILLIAMSON and McCluskie also effectuated the scheme through false statements and 14 omissions to Lawyer 1 and Law Firm 1. The invoices WILLIAMSON and Co-Conspirator 2 submitted
15 to Law Firm 1 to initiate the payments from the dormant campaign accounts were false and misleading
16 in that they claimed the money they were paid was for WILLIAMSON and Co-Conspirator 2 providing 17 consulting services to the campaign. In fact, the money was not being paid for those services; instead, 18 the money was being paid so that it could be passed through to McCluskie. Had Law Firm 1 known the 19 true facts, it would not have made the payments.

20 23. To make it appear to Law Firm 1 as though the invoices from WILLIAMSON and Co-
21 Conspirator 2 were for legitimate services rendered, McCluskie would personally approve or have his 22 spouse approve the invoices. In doing so, the personal relationship between McCluskie and his spouse, 23 who had a different surname, was not disclosed to employees at Law Firm 1. This omission was 24 material in that it made it less likely that Law Firm 1 would ask additional questions, discover the illegal 25 nature of the scheme, and refuse to issue payments.

26 D. Additional False Statements and Omissions

27 24. To further support the scheme and prevent or delay its detection, the conspirators also 28 made, or caused others to make, materially false statements and omissions in state campaign financial

1 disclosures, to government ethics counsel, and to the media.

2 25. As alleged above, McCluskie, WILLIAMSON, and Co-Conspirator 2 provided false and 3 misleading information about the dormant campaign expenses, including through emails and invoices
4 sent to Law Firm 1's employees. In addition to using this information as described above to issue
5 payments from the dormant campaign accounts, Law Firm 1 used this information to prepare California
6 Fair Political Practices Commission ("FPPC") Form 460 campaign disclosures. Because the 7 information provided to Law Firm 1 was false and misleading, Law Firm 1 prepared Form 460s that 8 falsely reported that the monthly campaign expenditures to WILLIAMSON and Co-Conspirator 2 were 9 for campaign consultant services. The Form 460s were then reviewed by McCluskie and/or Public
10 Official 1 and publicly filed with the California Secretary of State. This created the false appearance of 11 propriety and legal review related to the payments, which furthered the scheme by making it less likely 12 that it would be detected by Public Official 1 and Law Firm 1, either directly, or through public or media 13 scrutiny of the arrangement.

14 26. Likewise, when McCluskie sought ethics approval for his spouse's employment from the 15 counsel's office at the federal department where he was Chief of Staff, McCluskie intentionally 16 concealed that the employment was for a no-show job and that his spouse's pay would come from 17 money passed through a conduit scheme from Public Official 1's dormant campaign funds. Instead,
18 McCluskie affirmatively misrepresented that his spouse would be working as a "communications 19 consultant" "advising on digital ad placements and misc. communications for political campaigns."

20 27. This was not just a misrepresentation that McCluskie's spouse would be working when 21 she was not; it was also part of the misrepresentation about who she would be doing work for and how 22 she was getting paid. Communications consulting for political campaigns was a job that was 23 unnecessary and illegal for the dormant campaign because Public Official 1 was prohibited from 24 campaigning while serving in a high-level appointment in the federal government. By claiming that his 25 spouse was performing that type of work, McCluskie, in effect, represented that his spouse was doing
26 work that was unconnected to Public Official 1's dormant campaign accounts. As a result of these false 27 statements and omissions, McCluskie obtained ethics approval for his spouse's purported employment.
28 This further created an unwarranted aura of legitimacy around the payments, including reducing the

1 likelihood of objections from Public Official 1 who expected that ethics counsel would be consulted
2 about the propriety of the purported employment relationship.

3 28. In or about April 2024, WILLIAMSON, after consulting with one or more co-
4 conspirators, also approved a false and misleading statement for Law Firm 1 to provide in response to a
5 press inquiry. In the statement, Law Firm 1 repeated false information about Co-Conspirator 2's 6 consulting work for the campaign and concealed the pass-through nature of the scheme, which was 7 unknown to Law Firm 1. This was done in furtherance of the objects of the conspiracy, since it, among 8 other things, helped evade detection of the scheme and allowed it to continue.

9 E. Coordination and Cover-Up

10 29. WILLIAMSON also worked to coordinate among the members of the scheme when their 11 interests might not otherwise align. For example, when McCluskie's spouse refused to sign a backdated
12 contract in the Spring of 2024, WILLIAMSON told McCluskie that she would talk to Co-Conspirator 2 13 and take care of it.

14 30. It was further a part of the manner and means of the conspiracy and scheme that the 15 conspirators worked together to avoid detection. WILLIAMSON, Campbell, and Co-Conspirator 2 met 16 and communicated on several occasions in 2024, in varying combinations, to discuss ending or 17 continuing the scheme, to share information pertinent to maintaining the secrecy of the scheme from 18 unknowing participants and outsiders, and to reinforce the bond of secrecy among themselves.
19 WILLIAMSON, McCluskie, and Co-Conspirator 2 also met and communicated in varying combinations
20 on several occasions in 2024 for the same purpose. For example, on or about July 29, 2024, when 21 WILLIAMSON, Campbell, and Co-Conspirator 2 discussed the scheme prior to Co-Conspirator 2
22 interacting with Lawyer 1 regarding the payments from the dormant campaign accounts, Co-Conspirator
23 2 asked WILLIAMSON if Lawyer 1 was aware of the scheme. WILLIAMSON answered, quietly
24 whispering, "no."

25 31. Likewise, later in the conversation, Campbell reinforced the importance of not having 26 payments from the campaign account to Co-Conspirator 2 end at the same time the payments to 27 McCluskie's spouse stopped. Instead, Campbell suggested paying McCluskie's spouse for a few more 28 months than Co-Conspirator 2 billed the campaign. The extra payments, Campbell suggested, would

1 make it appear as though the two sets of payments were unconnected, thereby helping to conceal that the 2 purpose of the dormant campaign account payments was so that they could be passed through to 3 McCluskie.

4 32. When the scheme ended in or about September 2024, McCluskie, with the help of 5 WILLIAMSON, Campbell, Co-Conspirator 2, and Co-Conspirator 5, had stolen approximately 6 $225,000 of campaign funds for MCCLUSKIE's own use.

7 IV. OVERT ACTS

8 In furtherance of said conspiracy and to accomplish its objects, although not required to prove 9 the offense, at least one of the conspirators committed, or caused to be committed, in the State and 10 Eastern District of California, the following overt acts, among others:

11 33. On or about February 18, 2022, WILLIAMSON and McCluskie met in person at a 12 restaurant near midtown Sacramento, California, where they began planning the scheme.

13 34. On or about February 22, 2022, McCluskie and WILLIAMSON exchanged text messages
14 regarding the scheme:

15 McCluskie: Talked to [Public Official 1]. He wanted me to talk
16 to you. Let me know when is a good time to call.

17 WILLIAMSON: I'm scared.

18 McCluskie: I can talk now. Don't be scared.

19 WILLIAMSON: Call me

20 35. On or about February 22, 2022, McCluskie called WILLIAMSON's phone. The call was 21 connected for approximately 20 minutes.

22 36. On or about March 9, 2022, WILLIAMSON and McCluskie texted about delays
23 involving Law Firm 1:

24 McCluskie: Staying or leaving is complicated and happy to talk
25 more. Is there a way to get [Lawyer 1] moving like [Public Official 1] or myself calling him?

26 WILLIAMSON: I didn't tell him it was for you

27 WILLIAMSON: I called again this am

28 McCluskie: BTW, I don't want you paying for this. I appreciate it.

1 37. On or about March 10, 2022, McCluskie texted WILLIAMSON that “[Public Official 1]
2 wants to know a reasonable amount to pay someone to manage his accounts . . . he is looking for an
3 example of some firm that puts in writing that this is what they would charge.”

4 38. On or about March 14, 2022, WILLIAMSON met with Public Official 1 at McCluskie’s
5 encouragement.

6 39. Following WILLIAMSON’s meeting with Public Official 1, on or about March 14, 2022,
7 WILLIAMSON texted Lawyer 1, “Hey. Talked to [Public Official 1] so give me a call when you can.”

8 40. On or about March 17, 2022, WILLIAMSON texted Lawyer 1, “Let’s do 7500. Start 9 March 1 ongoing with 30 day out.”

10 41. On or about March 18, 2022, McCluskie emailed WILLIAMSON seeking information
11 that he could provide to ethics counsel at MCCLUSKIE’s federal employer regarding his spouse’s
12 purported employment with Company A.

13 42. On or about March 21, 2022, McCluskie texted WILLIAMSON, “I sent you an email
14 with the questions that [Federal Agency] will want an answer [on]. . . . We can move on hiring [my 15 spouse] before that process plays out. It would be best for us if [she] is hired as an employee so I do not 16 have to figure out taxes. Let me know what I have to provide to you to get the process started.”

17 43. On or about March 28, 2022, WILLIAMSON emailed McCluskie information to provide 18 to ethics counsel regarding McCluskie’s spouse’s purported employment with Company A.
19 WILLIAMSON stated that McCluskie’s spouse would be “Advising on digital ad placements and misc.
20 communications for political campaigns.”

21 44. On or about March 28, 2022, McCluskie texted WILLIAMSON asking, “How do we 22 move [my spouse] forward with getting [her] hired on? I have some commitments to make so I am just 23 trying to make sure we are good for March.”

24 45. A few days later, on or about April 1, 2022, WILLIAMSON responded to McCluskie and 25 said, “You are good for March. Give [your spouse] my contact and I’ll get it all set up.”

26 46. On or about April 5, 2022, McCluskie texted WILLIAMSON to ask, “Is there any chance 27 you could pay [my spouse] this week for March? We are making monetary commitments for travel and 28 I want to make sure I have the resources. Thanks.”

1 47. On or about April 20, 2022, McCluskie repeated the information provided by 2 WILLIAMSON on or about March 28, 2022, in an email to ethics counsel.

3 48. On or about August 8, 2022, WILLIAMSON or someone acting at her direction emailed
4 Lawyer 1 an invoice for $45,000 requesting payment for “Consulting” “Account Maintenance (March –
5 August 2022).”

6 49. On or about August 19, 2022, in reply to an email chain from Lawyer 1 asking, “Can you
7 confirm that we are authorized to make this $45,000 payment to [WILLIAMSON] for consulting fees,” 8 McCluskie emailed stating that WILLIAMSON’s invoice was approved, “Yes. It is approved.
9 [Pronoun representing Public Official 1] wanted to compensate her for her work with the campaign
10 accounts.”

11 50. On or about November 2, 2022, WILLIAMSON called McCluskie. The call was 12 connected for approximately eight minutes.

13 51. On or about November 2, 2022, WILLIAMSON initiated a group text message chain
14 introducing Co-Conspirator 2 to McCluskie.

15 52. On or about November 2, 2022, MCCLUSKIE called Co-Conspirator 2. The call was 16 connected for approximately 16 minutes.

17 53. On or about November 21, 2022, WILLIAMSON or someone acting at her direction
18 emailed an invoice for $32,500 to Law Firm 1 requesting payment for “Consulting” “Account 19 maintenance” for September to December 2022.

20 54. On or about December 5, 2022, a Company C employee emailed WILLIAMSON asking 21 if McCluskie’s spouse could be switched from an employee to a 1099 contractor.

22 55. On or about January 2, 2023, WILLIAMSON emailed Campbell, Co-Conspirator 2, and a 23 Company C employee stating, “[Co-Conspirator 2] will invoice [Public Official 1’s] campaign for 24 $10,000 per month via [Company B]” so Co-Conspirator 2 can “cover [McCluskie’s spouse’s] contract
25 ($120,000).”

26 56. On or about January 24, 2023, WILLIAMSON emailed Lawyer 1, copying Co-
27 Conspirator 2, stating “Hi – Including [Co-Conspirator 2]; [he/she] will be your contact going forward.
28 Invoices will now be for $12,500/mo. per [McCluskie’s initials]. D.”

1 57. On or about January 24, 2023, WILLIAMSON emailed McCluskie's spouse and Co-
2 Conspirator 2, stating "[McCluskie spouse] – Please meet [Co-Conspirator 2] who will be handling your 3 invoices going forward. Dana."

4 58. On or about January 24, 2023, McCluskie's spouse sent an email to a Company C
5 employee clarifying that it was $10,000 per month, not $12,500.

6 59. On or about January 24, 2023, Co-Conspirator 2 caused a Company C employee to email
7 an invoice for "consulting services" to Law Firm 1.

8 60. On or about January 24, 2023, McCluskie approved Co-Conspirator 2's first invoice for 9 "consulting services" to the dormant campaign.

10 61. On or about January 30, 2023, a Company C employee sent an email to Campbell and 11 Co-Conspirator 2, stating "Below is the February contribution to [Company C]: [Co-Conspirator 2]: 12 $10,700 + $10,000 (Feb [McCluskie's spouse] = $20,700"

13 62. On or about February 15, 2023, Co-Conspirator 2 caused a Company C employee to 14 email an invoice for "consulting services" to Law Firm 1.

15 63. On or about February 17, 2023, McCluskie responded to Law Firm 1's request to "auto-
16 pay" the "monthly invoices from [Company B] moving forward" by declining that request and instead,
17 informing it that McCluskie's spouse would be taking over for him as the person handling the invoice
18 approvals for the payments sought by, or on behalf of, Co-Conspirator 2 and Company B.

19 64. On or about February 21, 2023, a Company C employee emailed Campbell and Co-
20 Conspirator 2, asking: "Greg . . . —let me know if you'd like me to transfer [the funds]. [Co-
21 Conspirator 2]: $10,700 + $10,000 (March [MCCLUSKIE's spouse]) = $20,700 (I invoiced [Lawyer 1]
22 on 2/14 for March so you should receive payment soon.)"

23 65. On or about February 21, 2023, Co-Conspirator 2 responded by email to the Company C
24 employee and Campbell that, "I will write a check once I get the funds from [Lawyer 1]!"

25 66. On or about March 1, 2023, McCluskie's spouse again refused to give "approval to 26 automatically pay the monthly [Company B] invoices" and instead, had Law Firm 1 "continue to send 27 the invoices to [her] for approval."

28 67. On or about March 3, 2023, a Company C employee emailed McCluskie's spouse

1 explicitly linking the payments from the campaign to the pass-through payments:

2 I wanted to touch base and let you know that I'm awaiting payment from 3 the campaign, then I'll send your monthly fee. I expect it will be early next 4 week. Going forward, would you prefer that I send the payment when I receive payment from the campaign, or would you prefer that I just send it at the end of the month. Just let me know. Thank you[.]

5 68. On or about March 3, 2023, McCluskie's spouse responded to the Company C
6 employee's email regarding timing of payments and said, "It would be great if you would s[end] the fee
7 when you receive payment from the campaign. Thanks and have a nice weekend".

8 69. On or about April 12, 2023, Co-Conspirator 2 caused a Company C employee to email an
9 invoice for "consulting services" to Law Firm 1.

10 70. On or about June 14, 2023, Co-Conspirator 2 caused a Company C employee to email an 11 invoice for "consulting services" to Law Firm 1.

12 71. On or about April 15, 2024, Co-Conspirator 2 caused a Company C employee to email an
13 invoice for "consulting services" to Law Firm 1.

14 72. On or about April 19, 2024, WILLIAMSON emailed Lawyer 1, approving a statement
15 for Lawyer 1 to release to a reporter as follows:

16 [Co-Conspirator 2] has been paid to oversee the Committee and manage its 17 operations while [Public Official 1] has been serving in Washington, including 18 payment of ongoing expenses and filing of required campaign reports.

19 [Co-Conspirator 2] has continued to provide committee management services this year and has been paid for those services.

20 73. On or about May 6, 2024, a Company C employee acting at the direction of Co-
21 Conspirator 2 emailed McCluskie's spouse a backdated work contract, which purported to have been 22 entered in January 2023, asking McCluskie's spouse to, "please sign and return."

23 74. On or about May 9, 2024, McCluskie called WILLIAMSON. WILLIAMSON did not 24 answer.

25 75. Approximately five minutes later, on or about May 9, 2024, WILLIAMSON called 26 McCluskie. The call connected for approximately three minutes during which WILLIAMSON said she 27 would take care of the backdated contract with Co-Conspirator 2.

28 76. On or about June 13, 2024, Co-Conspirator 2 caused a Company C employee to email an

1 invoice for “consulting services” to Law Firm 1.

2 77. On or about July 15, 2024, Co-Conspirator 2 emailed an invoice for “consulting services”
3 to Law Firm 1.

4 78. On or about July 29, 2024, WILLIAMSON, Campbell, and Co-Conspirator 2 met at a bar
5 near the California State Capitol and discussed ending the scheme. During the conversation, Campbell 6 explained the need to obfuscate the connection between the payments from the campaign accounts and 7 the payments to McCluskie’s spouse stating, in part, that: “we need to probably eat one or two months
8 so it doesn’t line up directly from when you quit and stop paying her” and “whenever you quit we 9 probably have to at least pay one month or otherwise it’s going to look—it’s going to just raise red flags 10 potentially.”

11 79. On or about August 2, 2024, Campbell and Co-Conspirator 2 met at Company C’s
12 business location in Sacramento, California. Campbell discussed ending the scheme and stated that it
13 was “always set up to be somewhat icky,” amounted to “laundering money,” and was “wrong.”

14 80. On or about August 29, 2024, McCluskie and Co-Conspirator 2 spoke on the phone about 15 Co-Conspirator 2 stopping payments. During this conversation, McCluskie asked Co-Conspirator 2 to 16 continue the arrangement for a time so he could “transition out” of his federal job and try to get his 17 “pension out of the federal government.” He explained that the “money that you guys are giving me is 18 helping me fly back and forth to to uh DC and live there half part time.”

COUNT NINETEEN: [18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to Interfere with Governmental Function and Obstruct Justice]

The Grand Jury further charges:

DANA WILLIAMSON,

defendant herein, as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to the Indictment:

1. Paragraphs 1 through 3 of Count 1 of the Indictment are realleged and incorporated herein, as if fully set forth.

A. The Small Business Administration and the Paycheck Protection Program

2. The United States Small Business Administration (the "SBA") was an agency of the United States government that provided support to entrepreneurs and small businesses. The mission of the SBA was to maintain and strengthen the nation's economy by enabling the establishment and viability of small businesses and by assisting in the economic recovery of communities after disasters.

3. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act was a federal law

1 first enacted in March 2020 and designed to provide emergency financial assistance to the millions of 2 Americans who were suffering the economic effects caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. One source of 3 relief provided by the CARES Act was the authorization of forgivable loans to small businesses for job
 4 retention and certain other expenses, through a program referred to as the Paycheck Protection Program
 5 (the “PPP”).

6 4. To obtain a PPP loan, a qualifying business was required to submit a PPP loan
 7 application that was signed by an authorized representative of the business. The PPP loan application
 8 required the business (through its authorized representative) to acknowledge the program rules and make 9 certain affirmative certifications in order to be eligible to obtain the PPP loan.

10 5. Not all businesses could qualify for PPP loans or PPP loan forgiveness. PPP loans could 11 not be used for lobbying activities or expenditures, nor could they be used for “expenditures designed to 12 influence the enactment of legislation, appropriations, regulation, administrative action, or Executive 13 order proposed or pending before Congress or any State government, State legislature, or local 14 legislature or legislative body.” Title 15, United States Code, Section 636(a)(37)(F)(vi) (Eff. Dec. 31, 15 2020). Further, “any business concern or entity primarily engaged in political or lobbying activities”
 16 was expressly excluded as an “eligible entity” for the purpose of obtaining PPP second draw loans. Title
 17 15, United States Code, Section 636(a)(37)(A)(iv)(III)(bb) (Eff. Dec. 31, 2020).

18 B. Civil Investigation of Williamson’s PPP Loans

19 6. The SBA and the Civil Division of the United States Attorney’s Office for the Eastern 20 District of California investigated companies engaged in lobbying activity who also obtained PPP loans.

21 7. WILLIAMSON’s company, Company A, collected PPP funds and had one or more 22 employees or principals whom public records indicated engaged in lobbying activity.

23 8. In or about September 2023, the SBA and the Civil Division of the United States
 24 Attorney’s Office for the Eastern District of California began investigating PPP loans obtained by 25 WILLIAMSON’s company, Company A.

26 9. As part of that civil investigation, on or about January 16, 2024, Company A was served 27 with a Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act (“FIRREA”) subpoena. The 28 subpoena requested documents related to Company A’s eligibility for PPP loans, loan forgiveness, and

1 its revenue from lobbying activity.

2 II. THE CONSPIRACY AND ITS OBJECTS

3 10. From in or about July 2024, through in or about August 2024, in Sacramento County, 4 within the State and Eastern District of California, and elsewhere, WILLIAMSON did knowingly and 5 intentionally combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with Campbell to interfere with the functions of 6 the United States and an agency thereof, to wit, the United States Department of Justice and the SBA,
7 and to commit offenses against the United States, to wit, to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section
8 1519. The following were each objects of the conspiracy:

9 a. To interfere with governmental function by and through deceitful and dishonest
10 means for the purpose of impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating the lawful 11 governmental functions of the Department of Justice and the SBA in investigating and enforcing 12 civil violations of applicable federal law relating to PPP loans.

13 b. To impede, obstruct, and influence an investigation and the proper administration 14 of justice of a matter within the jurisdiction of the United States Department of Justice and the 15 SBA, and in relation to or in contemplation of any such matter or case, by altering, destroying,
16 concealing, covering up, falsifying, and making false entry to a record, document, and tangible 17 object, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1519.

18 III. MANNER AND MEANS

19 In furtherance of the conspiracy, the conspirators employed, among others, the following manner
20 and means:

21 11. On or about July 29, 2024, WILLIAMSON arranged for WILLIAMSON, Campbell, and 22 Co-Conspirator 2 to meet at a restaurant and bar near the California State Capitol.

23 12. During the July 29, 2024 meeting, WILLIAMSON discussed the FIRREA subpoena from 24 the United States, stating among other things that: "I'm still in this like fucking, my PPP loan got 25 popped bullshit." WILLIAMSON asked for Campbell's help creating a contract she could submit in 26 response to the subpoena, documenting the purported business relationship between Company A and 27 Company D, even though WILLIAMSON and Campbell never had one for those companies.
28 WILLIAMSON asked Campbell to have "[a Company C employee] do like a retroactive one" and that

1 WILLIAMSON would “text you like the years” she needed. WILLIAMSON told Campbell that the 2 contract should “say that you were sub-contracting with me to provide general advice, umm, to your 3 clients, there w—there’s no lobbying or influence or anything like that.”

4 13. Campbell agreed and told WILLIAMSON to, “just shoot me a text with what you need it
5 to say, and I’ll go ta, go see [the Company C employee] right after this.”

6 14. On or about July 30, 2024, WILLIAMSON texted Campbell, “On the contracts, I need 3
7 (2019, 2020, 2021) of the same that says [Company A] is sub to various clients of campbell to provide 8 strategic advice. [Company A] is prohibited from providing any lobbying services.” Campbell replied,
9 “On it” and then “Do we need amounts?”

10 15. Campbell then instructed a Company C employee to create the three contracts. The 11 Company C employee did so that day. Campbell, or an employee acting at his direction, backdated the 12 contracts to falsely indicate that they were executed in 2019, 2020, and 2021. The backdated contracts
13 also contained false statements about WILLIAMSON and Campbell’s business arrangement, including 14 stating that Company A was not engaging in lobbying activity and misrepresenting that Company A was 15 a subcontractor for Company D when in truth they both did work for shared clients. This reciprocal 16 work arrangement included WILLIAMSON offering lobbying services provided by Campbell to her 17 clients. These statements were intended to make the contracts look like legitimate contracts that had 18 been entered into at the time the services were provided, and to make it appear that Company A was 19 eligible to receive PPP loans and loan forgiveness.

20 16. WILLIAMSON texted Campbell later that day, on or about July 30, 2024, that she did 21 not think the contracts needed amounts, and Campbell agreed, adding: “They are all done and here for 22 you when you get a chance. Call me for details if/when you can.”

23 17. On or about July 31, 2024, WILLIAMSON and Campbell arranged by text message for 24 WILLIAMSON to pick the contracts up in person from the Company C offices, which WILLIAMSON 25 did.

26 IV. OVERT ACTS

27 In furtherance of said conspiracy and to accomplish its objects, at least one of the conspirators
28 committed, or caused to be committed, in the State and Eastern District of California, the following overt acts, among others:

18. On or about July 30, 2024, WILLIAMSON texted Campbell, stating “I need 3 (2019, 2020, 2021).”

19. On or about July 30, 2024, Campbell instructed an employee to create three contracts for WILLIAMSON.

20. On or about July 31, 2024, WILLIAMSON and Campbell exchanged text messages about picking up the contracts from Campbell.

21. On or about July 31, 2024, WILLIAMSON picked up the contracts from Campbell.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

21 COUNT TWENTY-THREE: [18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(2) – Making False Statements]

22 The Grand Jury further charges: T H A T

23 DANA WILLIAMSON,

24 defendant herein, on or about November 14, 2024, in the State and Eastern District of California, did
25 knowingly and willfully make materially false, fictitious, and fraudulent statements and representations,
26 in a matter within the jurisdiction of the executive branch of the government of the United States, to wit:
27 the United States Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"), in that during an 28 interview with FBI Special Agents related to ongoing FBI investigations of allegations concerning,

1 among other matters:

2 (a) WILLIAMSON's involvement in conduit payments from Public Official 1's dormant
3 campaign accounts;

4 (b) backdated contracts created in response to a subpoena to WILLIAMSON's company in a 5 civil PPP loan investigation; and

6 (c) WILLIAMSON's actions while serving in public office to influence litigation involving the

11 False Statement 1

12 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that there was no connection between Public Official 1's
13 campaign's payments to WILLIAMSON and WILLIAMSON's payments to McCluskie's spouse.

14 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, there was a connection between Public 15 Official 1 campaign's payments to WILLIAMSON and the payments to McCluskie's spouse.
16 Specifically, WILLIAMSON and McCluskie orchestrated the payments from Public Official 1's
17 campaign to WILLIAMSON to subsidize WILLIAMSON's payments to McCluskie's spouse.

18 False Statement 2

19 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that there was no connection between Public Official 1's
20 campaign's payments to Co-Conspirator 2 and Company C's payments to McCluskie's spouse. She 21 further stated that the money going to McCluskie's spouse was not coming from Public Official 1's 22 campaign accounts.

23 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, the payments from Public Official 1's
24 campaign to Co-Conspirator 2 were connected to Co-Conspirator 2's payments to McCluskie's spouse.
25 Specifically, the payments from the dormant campaign accounts were passed through for McCluskie's 26 benefit.

27 False Statement 3

28 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that the last time she spoke to Lawyer 1 was around the time

1 National News Organization 1's article was published in or about April 2024.

2 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, WILLIAMSON had spoken to Lawyer 1
3 in August 2024, well after the news article was published.

4 False Statement 4

5 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that the last time that she talked to Co-Conspirator 2 about Public
6 Official 1 or Public Official 1's campaign was when National News Organization 1's article was 7 published in or about April 2024.

8 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, WILLIAMSON had, in fact, spoken to 9 Co-Conspirator 2 about Public Official 1 and the campaign on several occasions since the news article
10 was published, including on or about July 29, 2024, and, only two days before the FBI interview, on or 11 about November 12, 2024, as discussed below.

12 False Statement 5

13 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that when she met with Co-Conspirator 2 two days earlier, she had 14 not spoken to Co-Conspirator 2 about McCluskie, McCluskie's spouse, or Public Official 1.

15 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, WILLIAMSON had spoken to Co-
16 Conspirator 2 about McCluskie, McCluskie's spouse, and Public Official 1 in a recorded conversation
17 two days before being interviewed by the FBI.

18 False Statement 6

19 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that she did not tell Greg Campbell what information to put in the 20 backdated contracts and that she only told Campbell what time period the contracts needed to cover.

21 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, WILLIAMSON had told Campbell what 22 information he should put in the backdated contracts she asked him to create, including that they should 23 "say that you were subcontracting with me to provide general advice, umm, to your clients, there w—24 there's no lobbying or influence or anything like that."

25 False Statement 7

26 WILLIAMSON falsely stated that while serving in public office, generally, except for 27 information involving potential government contracts for her former client, Corporation 2, she did not 28 pass any inside California State government information to members of Company C.

1 In truth and in fact, as WILLIAMSON then well knew, WILLIAMSON had passed California
 2 State government information to members of Company C that was related to the state's litigation against 3 Corporation 1. Corporation 1 was WILLIAMSON's former client and Co-Conspirator 2's current 4 client. WILLIAMSON and Co-Conspirator 2 often referred to it in coded language as "that thing" or 5 "that one thing." WILLIAMSON, contrary to what she told the FBI in November 2024, had revealed
 6 inside government information in conversations including but not limited to the following:

7 (a) In or about January 2023, WILLIAMSON told Co-Conspirator 2 that WILLIAMSON told a 8 high-level government attorney to move the litigation to a different part of the state government and get 9 it settled.

10 (b) In or about April 2023, WILLIAMSON sent Co-Conspirator 2 information about a state 11 government attorney who had been fired in connection with the litigation and then followed up with 12 phone conversations.

13 (c) In or about October 2023, WILLIAMSON shared with Co-Conspirator 2 information about a 14 conversation she had with a member of the state legislature related to Corporation 1.

15 (d) In or about June 2024, WILLIAMSON disclosed to Co-Conspirator 2 that an individual had 16 submitted a California Public Records Act ("PRA") request seeking the production of documents related 17 to Corporation 1 and its litigation with the state, and WILLIAMSON confirmed she expected a 18 government employee who oversaw that litigation would be fired. That conversation is transcribed in 19 part below:

20 WILLIAMSON: So fuckin umm, the [PRA request submitter] PRA us all for 21 any communications with, ummm [Corporation 1],
 [Lobbyist], Campbell, blah, blah, blah.

22 ...

23 WILLIAMSON: The funnier part was it was like any communications and meetings with 24 Greg Campbell, and I'm like, and then the way that she wrote it could 25 mean capture every, like, all of the meetings just cause she like disconnected representatives from she's a third point, and so I was like well I am fucked if I have to produce all of that. I talk to those assholes all the time!

26 Co-Conspirator 2: Right. Also like, fuck her.

27 WILLIAMSON: Yeah, I know, fuck her. Double fuck her.

28 Co-Conspirator 2: I mean, the [PRA recipient office] should play the same fucking game

1 they played and make them wait three years.

2 WILLIAMSON: Yeah, well, we don't have any responsive documents.

3 Co-Conspirator 2: Oh, even better. I love that [laughs]. Umm, okay, well that's good to 4 know. Is [government official connected to the Corporation 1 litigation] still gonna get fired?

5 WILLIAMSON: He sure is!

6 Co-Conspirator 2: Okay.

7 ...

8 WILLIAMSON: Alright, well I just wanted to alert you to the PRAs that we're starting to 9 get, and, yay.

10 Co-Conspirator 2: Yeah okay. I wonder what her deal is.

11 WILLIAMSON: I don't know. Her name is [First name] [Unintelligible] [First and last 12 name]
[discussion of possible motives for the PRA request]

13 WILLIAMSON: Or maybe that like the settlement conversation [Unintelligible] a little bit
14 odd like [government official connected with the Corporation 1 litigation] complained and she's, you know, very blatantly doing it on his behalf, 15 who knows.

16 Co-Conspirator 2: Yeah. Ugh. Fuck her. They don't really know who they are messing 17 with.

18 WILLIAMSON: They really don't. It's bad for them.

19 Co-Conspirator 2: Yeah –
