AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states the following in support of probable cause to believe the offense charged hereon has been committed and that the Defendant has committed it:

In 2018, the Professional and Amateur Sports Protection Act (PASPA), also known as the Bradley Act, was judicially overturned by the United States Supreme Court. This landmark decision effectively eliminated federal restrictions, allowing for the legalization of sports wagering. Consequently, individual states were granted the authority to legalize and regulate sports wagering within their jurisdictions. Iowa joined this movement in May 2019, becoming the 11th state in the nation to legalize sports wagering. Currently, there are nineteen licensed sportsbooks operating in the State of Iowa.

In Iowa, authorized sports wagering operates within a framework defined by specific state laws, rules, and regulations. Private companies offering sports wagering services must obtain a license to operate from the Iowa Racing and Gaming Commission (hereafter referred to as IRGC). Licensed sports wagering companies are required to adhere to a comprehensive set of regulations drafted by IRGC, which aims to ensure the integrity of gambling activities and facilitate proper taxation (IAC 491-13.1(99F)). IRGC is also responsible for approving the "Terms of Use" drafted by licensed sports wagering companies, which establishes enforceable conditions for customers who utilize their wagering platforms. Licensed companies are expected to make reasonable efforts to enforce procedural safeguards and prevent unacceptable and unlawful activities on their platforms.

Iowa code chapters 99F and 99E detail several criminal prohibitions pertaining to sportsbook and fantasy sports wagering. Persons under the age of 21 are prohibited from participating in gambling activities within the state. Individuals are also prohibited from knowingly allowing someone under the age of 21 to place wagers in the state. Any actions that could potentially manipulate or alter the outcome of a game or contest, thereby compromising the integrity of wagering lines, are prohibited.

Iowa code Chapter 80.25A designates the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) as the primary criminal investigative and enforcement agency for the purpose of enforcement of chapters 99D, 99E and 99F. Additionally, the DCI routinely assists gaming authorities by investigating and reporting violations of gaming rules and regulations established by the IRGC. As part of their regular duties, DCI agents also conduct background investigations on licensed gambling companies and their operations.

All sportsbook operators have developed user terms that must be accepted by every customer during the account registration process. To use services provided by the operator, all users must acknowledge they will abide by terms which prohibit the following:

- a) Wagering by a coach, athletic trainer, official, player, or any other individual participating in an authorized sporting event where wagers are accepted
- b) Wagering by a person employed (both paid or volunteer) in positions that involve direct contact with coaches, players, athletic trainers, officials, athletes, or participants in an authorized sporting event where wagers are accepted.
- c) Wagering as an agent or proxies for others.
- d) Wagering in the sport that the customer is an athlete or an affiliated participant. This also includes professional or amateur athletes, sports agents, coaches, team owners, team employees, referees, or league officials, and their immediate family members.
- e) Wagering by individuals under 21 years of age

In early 2023, an investigation initiated by agents with the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) uncovered evidence of EVAN SCHUSTER conducting illicit wagering activities on the FanDuel sportsbook platform. EVAN SCHUSTER has been a basketball manager for the University of Iowa Men's Basketball team since August 2021.

EVAN SCHUSTER engaged in a scheme with his father, ANTHONY JAMES SCHUSTER, enabling EVAN SCHUSTER to disguise his identity and manipulate online/mobile transactions to create the appearance that sports wager transactions conducted by EVAN SCHUSTER were made by his father ANTHONY SCHUSTER.

This deception enabled EVAN SCHUSTER to conceal his unlawful gambling activities from law enforcement and other regulatory bodies.

His actions contravened various legal and regulatory frameworks, including:

- A) Underage Gambling: EVAN SCHUSTER placed wagers while underage, in violation of Iowa's gambling laws. He employed a proxy account registered in the name of his father who was over the legal age of 21. SCHUSTER turned 21 on January 1, 2023. Over 1,970 sports wagers were placed before EVAN SCHUSTER turned the legal age of 21.
- B) Violation of licensed Sportsbook User Terms and Conditions: EVAN SCHUSTER's wagers on FanDuel also violated the platform's User's Terms, as well as rules and regulations administered by the Iowa Racing and Gaming Commission. FanDuel explicitly prohibits individuals from signing up for an account while underage or utilizing the service under another's name.
- C) Unfair Wagering and Conflict of Interest: EVAN SCHUSTER placed 10 sports wagers on Iowa Men's basketball events while an Iowa Men's Basketball student manager. This raised concerns regarding unfair wagering advantages, potential access to insider knowledge of athletic participants, and the potential for collusion-related activities.
- D) Tax Implications: EVAN SCHUSTER'S fraudulent activities also shielded him from potential state and federal tax implications. By concealing his identity during his sports wagering transactions, any tax responsibilities would fall on the stand-in's name listed on the account.

When placing wagers on the FanDuel platform, an individually unique "Wager Identifier" digital record is generated. This number is a digital record utilized by FanDuel to distinguish one wager from all others. Each wager placed by FanDuel generated a "Wager Identifier" digital record. Each "Wager Identifier" identified below correspond to a specific timestamped wager placed by SCHUSTER. The "Wager Identifier" listed are not all inclusive of SCHUSTER's sports wagering activity; however, they all meet the following conditions:

- 1) Wagers routinely and consistently placed from EVAN SCHUSTER'S personal iPhone.
- 2) Wagering transactions that required possession of EVAN SCHUSTER'S iPhone to unlock and access his FanDuel account using a specific username and password.
- 3) Corresponded to EVAN SCHUSTER'S known locations, including his university residence and areas of the university not routinely open to the public
- 4) Involved prohibited wagering activity related to sporting events.
- 5) Transacted within Johnson County, Iowa.

The following "Wager Identifier" digital records were transacted on an iPhone controlled by EVAN SCHUSTER utilizing the name ANTHONY JAMES SCHUSTER and the FanDuel account of 6749193.

According to subpoenaed records, this FanDuel account (6749193), which was controlled by EVAN SCHUSTER, completed over 2,000 mobile/online sports wagers totaling over $15,800. Over 1,970 sports wagers were placed before SCHUSTER turned 21, the legal age to sports wager. The account placed nine wagers on the following University of Iowa Men's Basketball events while EVAN SCHUSTER was a student manager for the Iowa Men's Basketball team:

02/25/2022	Iowa at Nebraska
11/07/2022	Bethune Cookman at Iowa
11/11/2022	North Carolina A & T at Iowa
11/16/2022	Iowa at Seton Hall
11/29/2022	Georgia Tech at Iowa
12/06/2022	Iowa at Duke
01/21/2023	Iowa at Ohio State

According to subpoenaed records, on 02/12/2023, EVAN SCHUSTER opened another FanDuel account (27770305), which was registered under his true name and identity. This account placed one wager on the following University of Iowa Men's Basketball game while EVAN SCHUSTER was a student manager for the Iowa Men's Basketball team:

03/16/2023 Auburn at Iowa
