And I know I'm not gay because I like guys too. Like me and Conrad are almost dating again But that's a whole different story. But idk I guess I'm just confused because like she's the only girl I've ever had feelings for. I've never liked another girl. So idk if I'm bi but I mean we liked each other and did stuff so idk		File System (3)

And especially because we kissed and stuff. But I'm confused because I haven't really liked a girl in that way besides her, so ldk if I'm just gay for her or what. But I know I like guys like I'm attracted to guys too I always have been		File System (3)

You're gonna like who you're gonna like and there's nothing u can do to change that. I think you should text her maybe don't come off all at once but ask her how she is an stuff		File System (3)
754	SMS Messages	Outgoing	6/23/2014	6/23/2014 10:54:07 PM(UTC-4)	To: 5086412108 Lexie Eblan	Yeah ha trust me we both wasn't into depression and stuff and like I saved her from killing herself and that's when I first cut myself. It was horrible. She ruined my life. But the thing is Lex I would absolutely text Alice and talk to her most definitely but she hates me now. And we will never have what we once had		File System (3)

She just eventually gave up because she didn't want her mom to get in the way anymore. Becasue whenever we had softball and her mom was around we couldn't even be near each other or else her mom would yell at us. Like her mom knew we liked each other she basically caught us. And idk Alice just had enough of fighting with her mom about me so she just gave up and completely took me out of her life		File System (3)

Like maybe liking me was a phase for her but idk because we did stuff that wasn't really what a phase would be. But shed never admit she liked me now. Which really makes me mad because she won't ever admit that she liked me to anyone. But I have evidence ha so idk		File System (3)

But like idk if I am bi I guess because I never had that type of relationship with another girl to really tell. And a part of me is scared to find out, because if that girl turns out to be bi or gay then I'm just scared what would happen. But I know that I wouldn't be scared if I was actually in that situation because I wasn't scared with Alice. I didn't care if people knew we were together at all		File System (3)
764	SMS Messages	Incoming	6/23/2014	6/23/2014 11:22:42 PM(UTC-4)	From: 5086412108 Lexie Eblan	It's because when you're like that (with someone like Alice) you aren't scared because you know there's someone else who's is like you in the same situation who has your back no matter what. Maybe you just haven't had the opportunity because you haven't let yourself because your scared of what people will think.. Even though it's okay to be like that and you shouldn't be afraid		File System (3)

And people kinda knew like my friends knew and they didn't care. So you're right, maybe I've been preventing myself to feel sometimes when I want to because I'm afraid. Sometimes I do say stuff that can be overwhelming that can make you feel responsible if something happens and you don't deserve that. You're never the reason why I would so don't ever worry about that. I'm sorry if I made you feel that way, I didn't realize how stupid I'm being half the time. You're right though I need to stop relying on people and handle things myself, it's just hard for me because I know I can't do it on my own. That's why I had to get help. That's very comforting to know thank you so much Lexie. I'm trying my best to stay strong for him. I can either rise or fall from this, so I'm trying my best for him because I know that's what he would have wanted. But what you just said really does mean a lot to me, and its hard, but knowing he's still by my side and watching over me is the only thing I can do now		File System (3)

I know people always usually do walks and stuff to raise awareness and remember someone, but I wanna do like a baseball tournament. And it will be in his honor, I came up with the name "Homers for Conrad". And the money will go to a mental illness/ suicide prevention awareness organization I found. And for every homerun hit, I was thinking maybe some money will go to the scholarship they made in his honor. That will be a cool little addition. What do you think?		File System (3)

So I was thinking we could hold one there for people that knew him in his town and community and friends on Saturday September 13. His birthday is September 12, so I think it would be a nice way to celebrate it the day after. And then the following weekend the 20th, we could host one at the PAL here in Plainville. It also has 4 fields, and people from around here like friends and our community and just anyone who wants to play can play		File System (3)

I mean neither of them like me like that I don't think. But its just so confusing why Alice is randomly acting like this I mean it's so sudden and I never thought she'd wanna be friends again. So I can't ruin it I can't rush things or be clingy and shit I just can't. This is awesome that she's being like this. Idk and I guess I'm confused with Allie too like I don't think she will like me but we had a fun time today and cuddled on the couch haha but I dont think that meant anything		File System (3)

And yeah you're right like you get me haha. ldk I need to stop doing that tho and just be normal because I know I can be really annoying and stuff. And I see what you mean about having someone to always have those kinds of conversations with Idk why I seem to have them alot I don't even mean to sometimes but you're actually making me realize that I don't need to have those anymore, only when they're really needed. Sometimes I just start unnecessary things and go way overboard when I really don't need to. So I'll try to not do that as much anymore. And I completely understand what you mean Im not offended. I'm happy you like that I'm always here for you because I am and always will be, but yes I understand that you would go to Sam and you should if you feel she's the best one to talk to about things. But yeah just know you can always come to me, I love that fact that I can always go to you and I do, and I appreciate the help you always give me. And okay yeah idk I was just wondering if you guys may have talked about it just because I never really thought about it either until Sam asked. 1559	SMS Messages	Outgoing	8/24/2014	8/24/2014 8:48:21 PM(UTC-4)	To: 5086412108 Lexie Eblan	Thank you so I've just been having really emotional and difficult nights. The night time is when all the thoughts of Conrad come. Like i think about him in the day too but night time was like our time where we would stay up til 2 am talking. And i just feel so alone without him and i text him but he never replies. And i have all these flashback thoughts of when i was talking to him on the phone when he killed himself and I just think about hearing his cries and I just panic and have like panic attacks from it. Everytime i see a car alone in a parking lot i get freaked out and anxious bc i feel like theyre using carbon monoxide to do the same thing and I cant be left alone in a car or ill lose control		File System (3)

So in the 1970s, a plane crashed in the mountains on a snowy day and the people on it who survived needed food bc they were stranded and starving. But they couldnt find any so they had to kill eachother and they ate eachothers ASSES, AS IN BUTTS because it had the most meat. So they were basically sucking their asses HAHA the end. I learned that in psych yesterday and I thought you would like that because it involved sucking ass	Yes	File System (3)

That was the nicest and most sincere thing Lex thank you so much I dont even know how to formulate a reponse. It really just means so much to me that you said this and I really appreciate it. This is why I like to talk to you about these kinds of things because you always make me feel better and you make me actually feel good about myself. Not many people can do that, youre one of the only ones so thank you for being someone I can always go to, and thank you for always supporting me and helpihg me with everything. But I know you dont want me to think about all this but I just cant like I literally cant no matter how hard I try. Its always on my mind. My minds just messed up Lex and the only way of losing weight for me is by doing unhealthy things. I feel bad for talking about this with you because I dont wanna annoy you with my shit and but like idk the way I think towards food will never change like even after all the help I've gotten, I dont listen and always go back to my way and I don't know why. Like I wanna listen and take advice and do the right things but my mind just doesnt let me. The only time I feel good about myself is when I barely eat. And I know it doesnt make sense but when I dont eat I feel happy and whenever I do eat, I feel fat and guilty and uncomfortable and I'm just afraid I'll binge. The past few days have been bad Ive eaten a lot of fatty foods. And october 1st is tomorrow and Im telling myself my diet and exercise starts then because I'm so fucking done with feeling this way and being fat but I'm just scared because I know my		File System (3)

But hearing you say that u think im beautiful and not fat really means so much to me coming from you. Like it honestly does so thank you. I love you so much Lexie and you are so beautiful. And I know youre having some issues right now with trying to eat healthy but you arent fat at all I mean that with all my heart. So please dont believe you are for even a second. And I wish I was better friends with u when I had severe anorexia because you woud of really helped me get thru it. Did I really look that sick? And what did people say? And I need to get back to the gym I havent been since July. I just really need to make a life style change with cardio and toning muscle. I do have a lot of fat and the only reason why you dont think I do is because I go long periods of time without eating so my stomach is like starving so its thinner. But I'm really not skinny. And thank you for saying that about Conrad. Its really comforting hearing that I'm in tears thinking about that. Just knowing u believe hes here with me, I didnt think anyone thought that bc it soudns crazy. But u do and it just means the world to me. I wannna stay strong for him like he said to try and beat this eating disorder he told me I could do it before he died so I know hes with me helping me, its just so hard and I give up a lot. I dont think ill ever get over it		File System (3)

Because the other day she changed her twit pic to a picture that I took and memories of that day came flooding back and she texted me the other day too and I still love her and maybe I always will. I think I like Allie I mean we talk and stuff but I know deep down Im still in love with Alice.
