Former Trump State Department Official Matt Mowers
Announces Growing Support With New Endorsements

BEDFORD—Today, Former Trump State Department Official Matt Mowers, Candidate for Congress in New Hampshire’s First Congressional District, announced the next round of endorsements for his campaign. These endorsements include elected officials, as well as conservative activists, whose enthusiasm and support will be key to victory this year.

“New Hampshire needs a new generation of conservative leadership that will fight for us—not be another rubber stamp for Nancy Pelosi and AOC,” said Tom Colantuono, former U.S. Attorney for the District of New Hampshire. “Matt Mowers has the experience and leadership to deliver real results for New Hampshire like stopping the influx of drugs into our country and keeping our communities safe,” he continued.

“Momentum is building for our campaign, and I am proud that so many New Hampshire leaders have chosen to support our energetic campaign. I think it demonstrates that many here in the Granite State are ready to reclaim the ‘new generation’ mantle from the likes of radicals like AOC and ‘The Squad.’ Instead, they want to entrust it to someone who has seen first-hand both the ills of socialism and the exceptionalism of the American way,” said Mowers.
