FlipaZoo 2.0 (Jay@Play)

- Available: Walmart
- FlipaZoo 2.0 is two cuddly plush animals in one that flip back and forth for two sides of fun.
- FlipaZoo is simple and easy to do, and it even doubles as a soft pillow.
- FlipaZoo's also come in mini and jumbo sizes.
- Age: 3+
- MSRP: $19.99

Hatch'ems (Basic Fun!)

- Hatch'ems are a collectible toy for all kids. Pop the lid, bop the top, and watch your dino hatch.
- Just remove the lid and bop the top to watch it burst and hatch, revealing an inflated surprise baby dinosaur or baby bird.
- Hidden inside capsules, they have the thrill of a concealed mystery item. The capsule doubles as a carrying case.
- Age: 4+
- MSRP: $4.99
- Available: Target, Walmart

Every Day Play Fidget Toys (Zing)

- Tumbly Tumbler is a small, weighted stick that challenges balance. Kids can test their creativity and dexterity and sharpen your focus and hand-eye coordination by rolling over the Tumbly Tumbler gently. Balance and catch the stick smoothly during 360-degree rolls, all while doing tricks.
- Zing Dama is a hybrid of KenDama and Yo-Yo, and consists of four parts: a ball, a ring, string and an adjustable strap. Users should strap the cup firmly onto their finger and start to swing the ball in any direction.
- Metal Chuckz are built just like Thumb

Chucks, but are covered in a soft, sleek, 'Metaltek' coating, allowing for advanced tricks because they are weighted slightly heavier than Thumb Chucks. Metal Chuckz deliver challenging fun with a classy look.

- Spinzipz are a gadget toy that users hold between their index finger and thumb and flick the light to start the spin.
- Age: 4+
- MSRP: Starting at $7.99
- Available: Amazon, Walmart

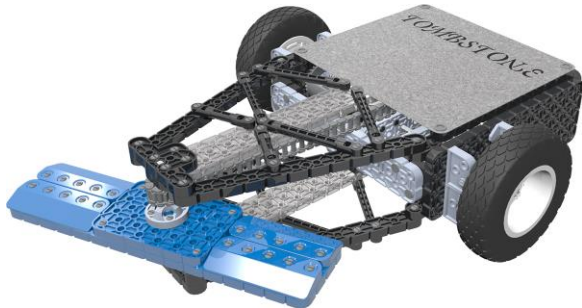

Star Wars Hero Droid BB-8 (Spin Master)

- Get ready for the most lifelike BB-8 experience yet: Hero Droid BB-8. The loyal astromech droid will delight collectors and kids with his impressive size – over 16 inches tall – and built-in voice recognition.
- Set Hero Droid BB-8 to “Follow Me” mode and it will roll beside fans just as loyally as it would follow Rey or Poe! Additionally, users can control BB-8 with the enhanced 2-stick remote via RC control.
- BB-8 also has the ability to come when called and reacts to key phrases and names from Star Wars: The Force Awakens. Hero Droid BB-8 by Spin Master will roll into toy stores this fall just in time for Star Wars: The Last Jedi™.

- Age: 6+
- MSRP: $229.99 USD

VEX Robotics BattleBots (Hexbug)

- From the hit TV series BattleBots comes Tombstone, the grave maker! Construct your very own version of this champion robot with the VEX Robotics BattleBots Tombstone.
- Use STEM-based problem solving skills in part with easy snap-together pieces to bring this bot to life. Tombstone comes complete with realistic detail and fully functional spinning blade.

- Teaches kids about advanced gearing techniques through hands on building, encourages STEM based problem solving skills.
- Realistic detail, spinning blade, 425+ snap together pieces.
- Age: 8+
- MSRP: $49.99
- Available: Amazon, Hexbug.com, Target, Toys R Us

Sky Viper v2450 GPS (Skyrocket)

- With professional-grade ArduPilot firmware, the V2450 GPS Streaming Video Drone outperforms every drone in its class. Built-in GPS provides an autonomous flight experience similar to that of much pricier hobby-grade drones.
- Using a network of satellites to trilaterate its position in relation to waypoints, the GPS Streaming Video Drone can maintain its coordinates in a hover without drifting away. Positional awareness also enables Return to Home, a feature in which the drone flies back to its launch point with the touch of a button.

- Advanced enough to satisfy discerning enthusiasts, this drone is also lightweight, durable and safe enough for beginning pilots to learn.
- Age: 12+
- MSRP: $149.99
- Available: Amazon, Target, Toys R Us, Walmart
