I stay up at night because I think and think and think and half the time I don't even know what I'm thinking about my thoughts just keep me up and I feel too much and love you much that's my problem. I love the wrong people who always leave me in the end and it makes me think something's wrong with me so I think all the time about how I should be different and if I was different maybe people wpuld like me but I can't change and I've always wanted to know what it felt like to look in the mirror and not hate yourself and I've always wanted to be one of those beautiful girls that boys liked and girls were jealous of bc maybe I'd have more friends but this sounds so wrong but I'm just so lonely it's the only thing that feels right Like I guess I've never dressed like a pretty girl because I've never really felt like one and it just hurts that I can't be what everyone wants or what anyone needs And it hurts that I can't be what I want or what I need be cause I'm not enough and I won't be enough And I'll never be close to enough And it makes me so damn tired because I just think all the time and I never do anything to fix it but I need to soon be cause idk what's gonna happen if I don't | | File System (3) | |

I don't get why I can't forget about her and move on because she hates me and doesn't give a shit about me and I just can't except that. I mean maybe she caused all this I mean I was so happy when we were friends like I loved life and stuff and ever since we weren't friends anymore my life had been awful I can't find my place and I pushed away basically everyone Because I thought I'd just have her forever like I felt like I didn't need anyone else but now I know I do And I was so stupid I don't know what I was thinking but she just made me feel things no one else made me feel like she was my best friend and I don't mean any disrespect to you because you are one of the best friends I have ever had and you mean so much to me like you are one of the most amazing people I have ever met but she was just special to me and knowing she doesn't care about me now at all and we will never be friends again just hurts me more than anything ever could and idk why I feel this way Livy I just do I'm such a messed up person | | File System (3) | |

It's so normal Michelle. Honestly like you shouldn't feel messed up at all. You are great and amazing and wonderful and I love you so much. I know she is special to you but you are better off without her honestly. You needed to disconnect she was not good for you...trust me. She had a hidden agenda and she quite honestly reminded me exactly of brad Harrington... Tells you one thing then betrays you and ik it leaves you feeling broken and empty inside but you are strong and it hurts now and every once in a while but you're gunna get through this. You are. I know you are. You are strong and beautiful and wonderful and everyone loves you. More than you know | | File System (3) | |

Like she won't let me follow her so I don't see what she tweets on my timeline so I just check every night to make sure she's okay and I hate it Because sometimes if she tweets something like she needs someone to talk to or she's going thru a rough time or something and she's sad like j us hard because I can't text her to be there for her and make everything better I can't do anything to help her and that kills me and I'm not a lesbian I don't like her like that I like boys I know I do because I fantasize about having a boyfriend like every fucking second but she just means so much to me idk | | File System (3) | |

And its okay but like I wanna lose weight and they don't let u exercise here so I gained 5 pounds haha because most of the girls here are too thin so they need the food. That's the only bad part. But I've learned so much about my triggers and what I need to do to prevent from relapsing and I'm gonna need a lot of support from friends because I learned I can't do it alone. Theres a lot of things I realized. | | File System (3) | |

Im still uncontrollable with portion sizes and stuff and I just can't get my own food. When I eat, I have to sit there for 10 mins after I'm done to really think if I'm still hungry or not because I'm actually full and satisfied, which I never knew before because I'd just keep eating. Um I need to get out of my house more and stay busy so I'm not tempted to eat. Like I definilty can't be left alone anymore because I just explode. So I'm gonna have to rely a lot on friends because I can't be home alone I mean I have to stay busy. And like sugary foods are hard for me because I can't stop eating them so I need to stay away from them. Haha I have so many issues | | File System (3) | |

But it wasn't like a normal friendship. I thought it was a phase at first like I thought we were just really good friends. But we started talking like a relationship would, flirting and stuff. And it wasn't awkward like Idk it felt normal with her because she felt the same way. We liked each other and I knew I wasn't gay like I know I like guys Im straight. So I thought maybe I was bi but I realized I'm not because it's only her. I would never have feelings for another girl it was only her that I felt that way about, I've never liked another girl in that way besides her. So she really messed me up because for a while I was confused and if her mom never made us stop talking, we may have taken it further idk. So now u know how close we were, and then in the middle of it all, her mom told Alice to stop talking to me because I apparently "was getting Alice in trouble too much". How did I get her in trouble? Well strike one was when she slept over and we woke up my dad at like 12am playing ball outside and my dad jokingly told her mom about it but I guess she thought that was bad. So that was strike one. Strike 2 was when I slept over Alice's house and we woke up at 2am to get cereal and woke up her dad when he had to get up early to work. So that was apparently wicked bad. And then strike 3 was when she accidentally called me at like 2am and I missed the call so I called back but I called her home phone instead of her cell and her mom picked up and found out it was me and then she also found out | | File System (3) | |

So now her mom really made us stop all contact and stuff and hovered over us at games to make sure we had no interaction and that was so hard because like we were so close and stuff. And this was when I was still dealing with anorexia kinda like Alice helped me recover so I got even more depressed and she got depressed because we couldn't talk and I tried helping her thru the fake fbook account and stuff but when that got taken away I only could talk to her at games which was almost impossible. I avoided every team situation where she was around because I didn't want her to get in trouble. So she stared having fun again and stuff with the team and I had to sit alone and watch. And then she made new friends and basically blocked me out of her life and avoided me because she knew her mom was never ginna let us talk again | | File System (3) | |

So that night when he actually did it I couldn't believe it. I was talking to him on the phone when he killed himself Liv, I heard him die. I just wish I got him more help, I wish I would of called someone to stop him that night. He would of probably did it a different night but at least I would of got more time with him. At the end of the day, I just really miss him. He was who I talked to until 3 am, and now he's just gone. But his mom called me today, she found a suicide letter he wrote to me. He didn't write one to anyone else. His mom said I was the most important person in his life so to know that just means so much to me | | File System (3) | |

If they have a team they can text me or fbook message me and I can put their team into a game time slot. They need a team name. And they can register online at palonline.org (scroll down on the home page to find the homers for conrad info) or they can give me the money in school or on the day of the tournament before playing | Yes | Physical (2) | Yes |
