CENTER TO HOST A FREE FESTIVAL FOR KIDS

April 13, 2017 (Tampa, FL) – The Carrollwood Cultural Center will host the second annual SpringFest! YouthFest! presented by the Carrollwood Village Homeowners Associations on Saturday, April 29 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the park area behind the Center located at 4537 Lowell Road in Tampa. Admission is free.

The event will include live performances by Beyond Chaotic, a 5-person rock band featuring kids on vocals, violin, keyboard, drums, guitar, and bass guitar, an anti-bullying skit by Champions – Kids on the Block; and an interactive concert with audience favorite, Mr. Tommy (aka Tommy Girvin, the lead guitarist and musical director for the rock singer Eddie Money).

Kids will also have an opportunity to participate in games, crafts, and meet their favorite superheroes and princesses. Food trucks PHO Truck, Mr. C's Grilled Cheese, Kebabalicious and Scoops Italian Ice will sell food and beverages throughout the day. In addition, the Center will have information about their upcoming arts-based summer camp program and offer a 10% early bird discount on camp tuition. Tampa-based family-focused organizations, such as Busch Gardens, will also be at the event.

The event, presented by the Carrollwood Village Homeowners Associations, is open to the public. For more information, visit CarrollwoodCenter.org, or contact Aaron Washington at aaron@carrollwoodcenter.org, or call (813) 922-8167.
