HONOR FLIGHT OF NORTHERN NEW MEXICO ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FROM WWII VETERANS FOR 2017 TRIP

Albuquerque, New Mexico- 2/1/17- Honor Flight of Northern New Mexico is accepting applications from Central and Northern New Mexico World War II Veterans and terminally ill veterans from other conflicts for the 4th Annual Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. This year's trip will take place Wednesday, May 31st through Friday, June 2nd. The trip is free of charge to the Veterans. "For many of our Veterans, this trip is on their bucket list," said HFNNM Board President Sherri Trujillo Hall. "It's an honor and the least we can do to thank these men and women for their sacrifices."

HFNNM is also accepting applications for guardians to these men and women. The guardian fee is $1000 and covers airfare, hotel, meals and all transportation within the Washington D.C. area. You must be physically fit and able to push a wheelchair 3-5 miles in one day.

To get an application or for more information please call HFNNM at 505-835-1993 or email us at honorflightnm@yahoo.com.

About Honor Flight of Northern New Mexico

Honor Flight of Northern New Mexico is a 501-c3 organization based in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The organization takes World War II Veterans to Washington D.C., free of charge, to reflect upon their own World War II Memorial as well as other memorials. Currently, first preference goes to World War II Veterans or other war veterans who are terminally ill. The non-profit raises funds for this annual trip every year through a golf tournament in September/October.
