Recognition Title: Excellent Customer Service recognition

Summary: On 1/14/2018, Deputy Angel was dispatched to a welfare check call for service. Deputy Angel arrived and contacted the female victim. She determined that the victim needed nourishment and took the extra time to see to it that the victim was given food and spent some of her own money to fulfill this need. Deputy Angel coordinated with the victim's neighbors to see that she would be looked after for the rest of the day. Deputy Angel continued to follow up with the victim on the next day (1/15/2018) and to see to it that the proper entities were contacted in order to provide adequate long term care/need for the victim. A JOB WELL DONE!!

Deputy Angel should be commended for representing the core values of our profession in providing excellent customer service to the community.
